Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper Entertain.

Farrington, Mrs. J. P. Cooke, Mrs. Willard Brown, Mrs. J. O. Young and Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley, who were in the receiving line, are members of the two committees in charge of the affair at the home. During the afternoon, Miss Ermine Cross, assisted by Miss Ruth Farrington, served tea, and in a charming little grove in the south lawn, Miss Frances Farrington and Miss Jessie Baldwin, presided over a unique punch bowl made from a block of ice. This novelty was designed and contributed by E. R. Lennemann. Some among those who called were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dillingham, Mrs. F. C. Atherton, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. T. M. Church, Mr. George Casper, Mrs. A. J. Giroux, Mrs. Manuella Phillips, Mrs. Arthur Alexander, Mrs. A. L. Dean, Mrs. Webster, Miss Church, Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Miss Lemon, Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Frances Lawrence, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Wariner, Miss Emily Wariner, Mrs. Jared G. Smith, Mrs. Noble and Mrs. John Lennox.

Mrs. T. M. Church to Entertain.
 Mrs. T. M. Church has cards out for a luncheon next Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Myrtle Schuman, whose engagement to "Kit" Carson was announced last week.

For Miss Marjorie Freeth.
 Miss Pauline Schaefer entertained delightfully at a buffet luncheon and handkerchief shower for Miss Marjorie Freeth, who is to be married to Mr. R. Clark next Wednesday. Miss Schaefer's color scheme was pink and blue, daintily carried out with pink sweet peas and blue forget-me-nots. Among those who enjoyed her hospitality were Miss Marjorie Freeth, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Helen Spaulding, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Harriet Lucas, Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Miss Mary Lucas, Mrs. William B. Lymer, Miss Sara Lucas, Mrs. Will Campbell, Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Myra Angus, Miss Jenn Angus, Mrs. Howard Ellis, Mrs. Ned Loomis, Miss Sybil Robertson, Mrs. Robert McEldowney, Mrs. Reynolds McGrew, Mrs. C. E. Schaefer, Mrs. J. W. Waldron, Miss Dorothy Guild and Miss Myrtle Schuman.

For Mrs. W. A. Rodenberg.
 Mrs. Charles H. Atherton entertained for Mrs. W. A. Rodenberg, wife of the congressman from Illinois, on Monday at a card party. The house was artistically decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Mrs. Atherton was assisted by Miss Ceco Case and Miss Ramona Morgan.

Reception for the Congressional Party.
 The reception for the members of the Congressional Party and their friends at the home of Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole on Tuesday evening was one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever given in Honolulu. There were five tableaux depicting life in Old Hawaii. The acting was excellent and at the end of the tableaux a procession of the actors, like a bit out of a story book come to life, passed the audience in one long procession. This brought forth tremendous applause.

Society Personals

Mrs. and Mrs. G. P. Castle of Honolulu are at the Bellevue.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mrs. Wilbur McNeil left for the mainland in the Wilhelmina this week for an extended visit to the mainland.

Among the society folk who are expected to return to the islands in the Matsonia next week are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knudsen.

Mrs. and Mrs. George B. Dougherty (Pauline Painter) of San Jose, who spent their honeymoon in Honolulu, were departing passengers in the Wilhelmina this week. Mr. and Mrs. for some time will remain in Honolulu.

Dougherty were entertained extensively during their stay in the islands and their early departure was regretted by their many friends.

Mrs. R. G. Moore, who has spent some weeks on the mainland visiting friends and relatives, is expected to return to Honolulu in the Matsonia next week.

Miss Gilman and Miss Yarrow are booked to depart in the Manoa next week. They expect to spend some time in California and particularly at the exposition. They will return to the islands in the fall.

Miss Nancy Ann Lee, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. P. Agee, will remain in Honolulu for some time.

lulu until September when she will return to her home in the East to take up the study of music.

Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy Corse, who came to Honolulu a week ago in the Wilhelmina and who were guests at the Moana hotel during their stay in the islands, were among the outgoing passengers in that boat Wednesday.

E. J. Lowrey, president of Lowers & Cooke, Limited, one of the leading mercantile houses of Honolulu, and Mrs. Lowrey arrived here Tuesday to remain some weeks. They are guests at the Clift.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Miss Carol Low, who spent the past two months in Hilo with her sister, Mrs. Albert Ruddle, returned to town Tuesday morning. Miss Low will be the house-guest of Judge and Mrs. Sanford B. Dole during the next fortnight.

Letters received by some of the younger folk the other day telling of the intention of Miss Elizabeth Low to return to Honolulu in June were read with much delight. Miss Low, who is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Low, has been in Boston for two years and her many friends here will welcome her home with open arms.

Mrs. Harry Gregg and her two little daughters, who are stopping at the Moana hotel, will remain in Honolulu until the departure of the Manoa next Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Gregg came to Honolulu in the Wilhelmina last week, but business affairs in San Francisco called Mr. Gregg back this week. A number of delightful entertainments have been given for Mrs. Gregg during her visit in the city and numerous other affairs have been planned for her.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Huxtable, their

Miss Dorothy Hurd, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hurd for some months and has made many friends here.

PLAN DANCING TO FOLLOW SKATING AT RINK TONIGHT

By the number of requests that have come to the skating rink management for repetitions of the skating and dancing entertainments for Saturday nights, it is evident that the 7500 square feet of maple flooring which the rink has, together with the fact that it is nearly an open air pavilion, has made this a most popular amusement feature with those who prefer a gentle exercise rather than the closeness of the picture houses on these hot evenings.

Tonight there will be skating from 7 to 9, and from then until 11 o'clock dancing will be in order. An augmented glee club will furnish the best Hawaiian music obtainable, and a good time is assured all comers.
